Australian Football Rules For Dummies

American football, referred to as football in the United States and Canada and also known as gridiron, is a team sport played by two teams of eleven players on a rectangular field with goalposts at each end. The offense, which is the team controlling the oval-shaped football, attempts to advance down the field by running with or passing the ball, while the defense, which is the team without ...

The aim of rugby is to score more points than the opposition. This is done in four different ways: Try: The most valuable play is to score a try, which means touching the ball down in the opponent's in-goal area or on their goal line. Doing so is worth five points and earns that team the right to attempt a conversion kick.

Published continually since 1998, "NEWS YOU CAN USE" was a Blog before "Blog" was even a word! Its intention has been to help inform the football coach and the interested football observer on a wide variety of topics, usually - but not always - related in some way to coaching or leadership. It contains news and views often (trigger alert!) highly opinionated but intended to be thought-provoking.
